

Datatrak® Partners with DecisionPoint Systems to Provide MobileArc™ Field Mobility Solutions

Foothill Ranch, CA — December 8, 2010 – DecisionPoint Systems, Inc. (OTCBB:DNPI) a leading provider of Enterprise Mobility and RFID solutions, today announced that Datatrak®, a leading technology solutions provider for the expedited delivery industry has joined DecisionPoint Systems' MobileArc™ Field Mobility practice as a Signature Partner.

As part of its cloud-based solution to empower time-critical logistics companies, Datatrak has consistently been a leader in deploying mobile technology. Carriers have realized how much more efficiently they could operate when using Datatrak Mobility™ and steady growth in its adoption has continued since it was first introduced. Because of that rapid growth, Datatrak empowered drivers are presently utilizing Mobility to process over 80,000 stops every day.

"DecisionPoint's mobile computing expertise, project management services and support offerings are the perfect complement to Datatrak's industry-leading software solutions for the expedited delivery marketplace", noted Raghu Prasad, Director of Mobile Technologies at Datatrak. "With a DecisionPoint MobileArc Field Mobility solution, our customers get the out-of-the-box experience they need in order to quickly deploy our complete solution."

MobileArc solutions are designed to help customers identify and achieve faster return on investment (ROI) in field-based workforce automation, while mitigating the risk of in-house deployment. This is accomplished by combining the best-in-class mobile application software with DecisionPoint's proven deployment methodology which involves managing every aspect of deployment including support services and help desk.

"We are very excited about our partnership with Datatrak, one of the industry's leading software providers", stated Brent Felker, Vice President of Field Mobility for DecisionPoint. "Together, we can deliver the ideal combination of hardware, software and services that will truly benefit our customers."
